POULTRY AND BENCH SHOW

Tomlinson Hall Filled with Fine Specimens of Chickens and Canines.

Opening of the Indiana State Poultry Association's Third Annual Exhibition-What Is to Be Seen There in Coop and Kennel.

It was a toss-up at Tomlinson Hall yesterday as to whether the dogs or the poultry made the most noise. The combination is a lusty one, and wakes the echoes in the great hall as they have not been wakened for many a day. The entries and exhibits continued to roll in, and firstday disorder prevailed, but by evening order began to develop from the chaos, and by this morning everything will be ship-shape. Never before has there been as fine an exhibition of poultry and as nice an arrangement of the coops. The latter are all about the same height and the regularity is pleasing to the eye. There are over 1,000 chickens in the hall and fully 1,300 entered, many late entries coming by telegraph at the last moment. The Light Brahmas lead this year in point of numbers, there being over two hundred entries in this class, and an exceptionally fine lot of chickens, too. The owners of prize-winners will have something to be proud of, for never was competition so lively as among the Light Brahmas. Major Griffin, of Mauzy, has on exhibition Radiator, one of the finest specimens of Light Brahma cocks ever seen. He took first prize in the breeding pen at the Chicago poultry show last November. W. R. Clore, of Trafalgar, has seventeen in this class; Henry Allen, of Bloomingdale, eleven; R. W. Crockett, of Delphi, eight; Mrs. Ed Kleves, of Bloomingburg, twenty-one; W. P. White, of Rushville, twenty-six and many other sections. ville, twenty-six, and many other sections of the State are represented in the competi-

M. Ross, of Liberty, six; Dr. J. B. Harlan, of Danville, fif-teen, and W. H. Jones, of Liberty, twenty-nine. J. R. Fohl, of this city, and J. D. White, of Nineveh, each show a pen of handsome Buff Cochins.

There are some forty Partridge Cochins entered. This class has not been largely represented for several years. S. E. Ewing, of Lebanon, has ten, and George W. Bren-ner eleven, these two exhibits being the largest in the class. The White Plymouth Rock class is well filled, among the entries being twelve each by A. J. Forsyth, of Nineveh, and J. T. Dougherty, of Liberty. W. J. Owsley, of Darlington, has twenty White Wrandottes, and J. R. Harcourt, of Augusta, ten. B. T. Pace, of Salem, has 17 Red-caps, 13 Gold-lace Wyandottes, and 10 Silver-lace Wyandottes. Ben Myers, of Crawfordsville, superintendent of the exhibition, has a fine display of Silver-lace Wyandottes and Langshans. E. A. Pierce, of this city. secretary of the association, has 25 Black Minorcas on exhibition. Dan Christian, of Roanoke, has 30 Barret Plymouth Rocks. Frank Farquhar, of Kennedy, O., shows 10 Black Langshans, all premium birds, having won first prize, at Cincinnati, a year ago. R. W. Crockett, of Delphi, shows the only pen of Rose-combed Brown Leghorns. J. Bennett, of Sunman, exhibits eight White-face Black Spanish cickens. A pen of White-crested Black Polish chickens, owned by Mrs. B. A. Richardson, of this city, attracts much attention. Meredith & Birck, of this city. also show ten handsome specimens in this same class. George Colcher, of Fishersburg, and Major Griffin exhibit pens of Dark

The game chicken classes are fairly well filled. L. MeBride, of this city, has on exhibition some very fine pit games of imported Irish strains and three Black Diamonds, the only pure black pit game birds ever bred. Mr. McBride has been for eight years perfecting this breed. R. J. Rockefeller shows five Black-breasted Red-Game Bantams. R. W. Crockett exhibits pens of Black-breasted Red Game chickens, and the same in Bantams. H. Newell, of Fort Wayne, shows a pair of Silverspangled Bantams.

There are seventy-five Brown Leghorns entered. E. A. Pierce has thirty-five fine single-combed specimens of this class, and Emrich & Drechsel show fourteen. Isaac Cox has a pen of Silver-spangled Ham-burgs, and W. A. Scott, of Whiteland, has sixteen Houdans, the only ones entered. About the best turkey display is that of Mrs. W. P. Benford, of Westland, who exhibits eight fine specimens. C. Simpson of Blue Bell, O., shows a peculiar crested, queer looking turkey, which the employes of the poultry association have named

There are between two hundred and three hundred pigeons exhibited, among them Blue, White and Pellow Pouters, Jacobins, Nuns, Fan-tails, Umblers, Car-riers, Red, Yellow and Mottled Trumpeters, Yellow-booted Trumpeters. All the entries are from this city. Churchman Brothers show over eighty and are the largest exhibitors. C. Henry Schrader, fifty, including Silk, Yellow and Black Fan-tails, and White, Silver and Blue Owl pigeons. R. C. Castenholz shows several specimens of high-flying tumblers and yellow Jacobins. Hugo Priller has twenty-two Homing Antwerps. R. C. Castenholz shows some English Carriers with a peculiar fungus growth on their bills. The larger this growth the more valuable is the bird. Frank Erdelmeyer and G. S. Smith also have nice exhibits. Cincinnati will send a large lot to-day, in which there are ten pair valued at $250. The number of dogs on exhibition will reach 120, and the Scotch Collie entries comprise the finest lot ever shown here. Will B. Fletcher's Crusoe, seventeen months old, by Rob Roy, dam Blonde Dee J., is one of the handsomest in the class. Robert Kemp's Mike, by Bread, dam Beauty, is another. The Red Irish Setters are splendidly represented, the most famous of the twenty en-tries being Dick Swiveler, owned by George H. Covert, of Chicago, and a noted prize-winner all over the country. Harry Goodman of Chicago, exhibits the champion Bulldog Rabagas, valued at $500. He has captured sixty first prizes during his career. O. W. Schmidt, of this city, exhibits Nellie, a Red Irish Setter, sired by Loring's Bang, dam, Loring's Mattie. In the same class is Boss, sixteen months old, and owned by Maurice Donnelly, of this city. He is a handsome setter, and is by imported Grouse, and took the first prize in the puppy class at the bench show here last year. O. W. Allen, of this city, has two Siberian blood-hounds on exhibition. There are ten Mastiffs entered from this city, Crawfords-ville, Tipton and Pittsburg, Pa., any number of English Pugs and several hairless Mexican dogs. Albert Knodel, of this city, has a white skye entered. One of the finest mastiffs is Nim, five years old, by Bevis, dam Rose, and owned by Francis Ardary, Pittsburg, Pa. Rex Mardo, a fourteenmonths-old St. Bernard by Victor Joseph, dam Princess, and owned in this city attracts general attention.

The attendance yesterday was fair for the opening day, but large crowds are expected during the balance of the exhibition. An incubator containing 300 eggs is one of the attractions, and will begin hatching today. Another containing 100 eggs will commence hatching to-morrow.

Nearly Ready for Operation.

Rauh Brothers have about completed their new building on the Belt road, which will be used for converting bones into sugar-purifying material, and also into bone-dust fertilizer. Ten or twelve carloads of bones are required each day, and much of the material will be shipped here from Chicago and other points.

PHASES OF LOCAL POLITICS. Republican Candidates for Township Assessor and Trustee.

Several Republicans have been added to the list of candidates for township assessor, and all are working earnestly for the place. The candidates now are Edward Conway, John Egger, Hugh White, Wright B. Wharton and William Petty, but Harvey B. Stout has concluded to withdraw from the race. It is generally conceded that an unusually strong man must fill the office of assessor this coming term, as the assessment of real estate will be taken in 1892, a task that requires great care and business oversight on the part of the one in charge of it. For township trus-tee, Smith King, Philip Reichwein and Miles Reynolds have announced themselves as candidates.

The Finances Not Satisfactory. The Hendricks Club installed its new officers last night, a ceremony of such an impressive nature that only such members who were up with their January dues were admitted. The financial secretary, in reply to a call for a speech, furnished a surprise. He condemned the financial policy upon which the club has been surviving, and scored the members very severely for their seeming unwillingness to meet their just debts. The club, he said, should at least be able to pay its own expenses, but many of the members have shown a tendency to not only shirk their duties, but also even to put an extra rubber band around their wallets whenever the financial secretary asked them for money. Owing to the way in which his remarks went home to so many of the prominent local lights of the Democratic party whose names are in red ink on the club's membership roll, he did not receive a very generous burst of applause as he took his seat. A Large Convention. The executive committee of the Democratic county central committee met in the court-house yesterday afternoon, and fixed 8 o'clock Saturday evening, Feb. 8, as the time for holding the Center township nominating convention in Tomlinson Hall. The primaries will be held at 8 o'clock on the riday night preceding. The basis of representation will be one delegate for every twenty-five votes that were cast in the township for Miers for Secretary of State

Send In the Names. Eugene Saulcy, secretary of the county central committee, says that the committeemen selected at the recent primaries are not sending in their names as rapidly as should be done in order to make the record complete for the meeting Saturday.

The Democrats and the Coal Mine To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal:

When the capitalist invests his capital in a coal mine it is not in the sense of a benevolent institution. When a miner puts his life in the hands of an engineer. of the Republican State central committee | goes in the face of the mine, works all day.

perhaps, in a damp or wet chamber, breathing impure air, it is not solely in the interest of making money for the capitalist.
It becomes a business transaction, so that the capitalist may have a fair per cent. for his capital invested and the miner a fair remuneration for his labor. Injury to capital, through individual or State action, is hurtful to labor. Both alike require, and should have, in an equal degree, all the aid, encouragement and protection that the law or individuals can afford them. I need not remind your readers of the long and bitter contest which raged last year between the operators and the miners in this block-coal region. Suffice it to say that the operators attribute part of our troubles to unjust legislation. This has been the cry of coal operators in every country, and in every State in this Union, where measures have been presented in the interest of protecting the life, health and comfort of the miner. They have appeared in the lobbies of our legislatures, biased the minds of our representatives, who invariably do not understand the questions, and have made them believe that if such measures were enacted they would have to shut down their mines, which would enevitably ruin them. This cry has failed in other countries; it has failed in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and Colorado, where wholesome laws have tween the operators and the miners in this Colorado, where wholesome laws have been enacted, and the results are that the mines are in a better sanitary condition, with a higher class of management, and the accident and death rate reduced to a minimum, without any evil results to the operators. I had hoped, in the last session of the General Assembly. to have some laws enacted which would have put Indiana on a plane with the States mentioned, but partyism rose high, Democracy was in the ascendant, and in laboring for positions for particular friends they virtually rendered useless for a year all the little protection the State had already given us, by passing an act abolishing the office of Mine Inspector. My only bill they did not kill in committee; the held it for thirty-four days, until it was almost an impossibility for it to get through. However, by the kindness of the Lieutenant-governor towards the miners, it passed on the last night of the session and went to enrollment, where, unfortunately for the miners of the State, it was decapitated by those having it in charge; yet I must confess that I cannot help but admire the audacity with which some Democrats pose as being the real friends of the miners.

SAMUEL ANDERSON. KNIGHTSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 13. ACCIDENTS CAUSED BY THE STORM.

Flat Car Hurled Againsta Construction Train, and Many Laborers Injured.

CHATHAM, Ont., Jan. 14.—The storm of yesterday blew a flat car out of the Ontario & Quebec railroad yard at Jeannette creek. The car rolled rapidly eastward until within about two miles of Chatham-There it crashed into a construction train filled with laborers. The construction train consisted of an engine pushing two box cars and drawing a box car and a flat car. The "traveler" was hurled through the end of the box car among the helpless laborers. The flat car was broken in two and thrown across the track. The injured are: David Cummins, injured internally; Fred Dawson. legs and back badly crushed; John Tracy, back hurt and several ribs broken. The following were all injured more or less seriously: John Gray, Sam Vitel, F. W. Nichols, Thomas McCumming, Robert Armstrong, Joseph Armstrong, Alfred Lethbridge, W. J. Western, Andrew Hart, Jose Swartz, H. Turner, John Dithman, Dugald Black. The injured men were brought into town and doctors called in. Their injuries are not considered fatal, except in the case of the first three.

The Blizzard in the Northwest. St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 14.-A genuine blizzard, the first of the season, prevailed in the Northwest the whole of Sunday and part of yesterday, knocking out telegraph wires, delaying all trains and retarding the operations of loggers in the pineries. Dispatches from the principal points in the Dakotas, Montana, and as far west as Spokane Falls, Wash., are to the effect that on the average the snow fell about ten inches on the level, and drifted badly, owing to the strong winds, approaching a hurricane, which prevailed.

A blizzard is now raging at Beardsley, Minn., the drifts being piled twenty feet high. A piercing north wind accompanies the storm. Train and wagon traffic is at a standstill. The first great storm of the season has struck Grand Rapids, extending all over the upper Mississippi region. At New Salem the very air was darkened by falling snow, and pedestrians could not see their hands before them. At Wabash, thirteen inches of snow has fallen. The highways are seriously blockaded and trains are behind time. From Neche. N. D., comes an account of a veritable blizzard, which raged for thirty-seven hours, render-ing all travel impossible through the heavy Casualties at and Near Montreal. MONTREAL, Jan. 14.—The most terrific wind-storm ever experienced in eastern Canada began here yesterday noon, and up to midnight raged with undiminished fury. One of the steeples of the magnificent St. James-street Church, just built, toppled to the street, injuring half a dozen people. The St. Jean Baptiste Church was blown down. Not an orchard remains standing on the Island of Montreal.

The accident at St. Hillaire, on the Grand Trunk road, yesterday, was a serious affair. The Actmoale accommodation train, consisting of two passenger coaches, combination, baggage and smoker and engine and tender was rounding a curve running twentwenty-five miles an hour when the hurricane came, and the cars were lifted and thrown bodily down the embankment, and were completely wrecked. Of the fifty people aboard not one escaped injury, and a dozen were seriously hurt. The cars caught fire, and only by vigorous efforts was a terrible loss of life avoided. The injured were brought here and sent to the Strawberries Ripening in the Open Air. CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 14 .- A crate of strawberries was shipped hence to New York last night. They were grown in a field in the suburbs, and in the open air. Should the warm weather continue a week or more the annual strawberry crop will be ready for marketing. The strawberry season here opens generally about March or April: but the fruit is now ripening rapidly and the entire crop, which will aggregate about a million quarts, will be harvested before the 1st of March, unless a blizzard comes along.

The Battle of Chickamanga.

Boston, Jan. 14.—Gen. H. V. Boynton read a paper to-night on the battle of Chickamauga before the Military Historical Society of Massachusetts. He said there had been a great many misrepresentations in regard to the battle ever since it was fought, with reference to the supposed defeat and rout of the Twentieth and Twenty-first Corps. He showed conclusively that these corps fought magnifi-cently, instead of having been routed. He showed that the supposition that the army was badly defeated and its artillery captured was erroneous, far it lost only thirtynine guns and captured thirty-six. He stated that the object of the campaign was gained in the taking of Chatanooga, and the battle was clearly a victory for the federal army. Considering the number of men engaged and time consumed, it was the bloodiest battle in history.

KUNZETO HAVE A NEW TRIAL

The Other Cronin Prisoners Sentenced and Taken to the Penitentiary.

Decision of Judge McConnell Denying the Application of Coughlin, Burke and O'Sullivan-The German Admitted to Bail.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—In Judge McConnell's court, this morning, the opening argument on the motion of the Cronin prisoners for a new trial was begun by attorney Wing. The argument was altogether confined to the points already presented in the attorneys' written declaration of errors. When the attorneys had finished Judge McConnell announced his decision in the following terms:

"I think it would be mere pretense for me to take more time to deliberate on this matter. I would not arrive at any different conclusion in several days than I have now. It has weighed upon my mind dur-ing the trial, all through it, that the de-fense should have a fair trial. Since its conclusion it has weighed upon my mind whether they had had a fair trial; whether the jury had reached such a conclusion, and whether the verdict was a just one. It was a just one, so it would be a mere pretense for me to take more time, though I have listened with attention, and with interest, to the argument of counsel. Judge Wing made one suggestion that deserves attention-that the defendants were prejudiced by not having been granted separate trials—yet the trial disproves it, because the theory, most generally accepted by the public, and urged by the State, that the conspiracy was formed in Camp 20, was not accepted by the jury, as shown by their acquitting Beggs. The jury concluded that there was a conspiracy existing be-tween Coughlin, Burke, O'Sullivan and others to kill Dr. Cronin, by their sev-eral acts, and that it was not formed in

"It is more satisfactory to a trial judge to have a jury of men absolutely without to have a jury of men absolutely without morits of the case, and opinion as to the merits of the case, and this course was followed in securing the first four jurors, but was dropped when it became evident that it would be impossible to obtain such a jury in the county. I am convinced that if any one watched the manner of the trial judge during the examination of jurors they would have been certain that the court was determined to have a fair jury. I think that any opinion formed by any juror who sat on this case was merely a casual opinion, not firm-

"As to the evidence, a judge is not called upon to say whether, it on the jury, he would have come to the same conclusion; it is to say whether the verdict is based upon sufficient evidence. As to one of these defendants, I am convinced that the evidence is insufficient. The first evidence against John Kunze is that of James, who saw him in a window across the street and never saw him again until he saw him in court. do not think his identification is reliable. also discredit the identification of Wm Mertes, the milkman, who claimed to have seen him one evening. That was the next time he appeared in the case. Niemann, the sale on-keeper, did not identify Kunze positively, and the jury had no more right to be positive than Niemann. This murder sprang out of Irish politics, some way—it is not necessary to even conjecture how-but this is no motive for Kunze to have taken part in this crime. Even if Mertes and James were to be believed and Niemann had been more positive, there is no difficulty in reconciling these facts with his innocence. I mean to say he might have been in the Clark-street flat and all the other places, and still have been i procent. "I believe that the verdict of the jury was not only unwarranted by the evidence, but was an absurdity. As to the other de-fendants, I overrule the motion for a new

Little Kunze was on his feet in an instant blurting out in his broken English: "Thank you, your Honor; I am very much obliged for your kindness."

"You are not indebted to me for any kindness," disclaimed the court. After the usual question had been put Daniel Coughlin rose and said in firm, distinct tones: "Your Honor, I am innocent. I was convicted by perjurers." O'Sullivan's turn came next, and his voice trembled slightly as he said: "I have not much to say. I protest my innoceace before God and man, and the time is not far distant when it will be shown. I was convicted by a prejudiced jury and perjured evidence. I do not ask for mercy. I ask for justice. I have not had justice." Burke stopped chewing gum long enough to say: "I am innocent. I always knew that in England they allow perjurers to go on the stand and convict innocent men, but I never knew it was done in America. A moment's silence followed, and then the court said: "Will the prisoners rise?" The three men rose again, and the court imposed sentence in the following words: "Following and confirming the verdict of the jury, the judgment of the court is that you be taken to the penitentiary at Joliet, and there confined for the term of your natural lives." without losing the command of their feelings, but O'Sullivan's lips quivered and his face had a worn, pinched expression. The defense was granted sixty days to file a bill of exceptions. It was announced that lawyers Forrest, Donahoe and Wing had been retained to take the case to the Supreme Court to the March term. Mr. Forrest made quite an extended appeal for a delay of execution, devoting himself to showing what an injustice would be done if the defendants should be compelled to go to the penitentiary, and afterwards given a new trial and acquitted. Judge McConnell finally announced that he would defer a de-cision until he consulted the other judges to find out on what authority they acted.

Kunze was then admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000. Judge Longenecker intimated that if they let Kunze stay in jail a few days he might conclude not to bring him to trial at all, but let him go. He promised to let the court and council know this week, and accordingly no effort will be made to get Kunze out on bail in the mean-

To-night the three prisoners, Coughlin, Burk and O'Sullivan, were hurried to a train and taken to the State's prison at Joir t. The trio were handcuffed and manacled together. The sheriff, a police cap-tain, two officers and three deputy sheriffs constituted the guard to the depot. The prisoners were driven in a closed carriage rapidly through the streets half a mile, followed by a troop of reporters. At the depot the regular train was just about pulling out, and the little party was hastily taken aboard, and the journey to the penitentiary began.

The train reached Joliet at 11 o'clock tonight, and the three prisoners were immediately admitted to the penitentiary to begin their life terms of penal service to Box Containing $11,000 Missing.

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 14.—A mysterious robbery by which the Wells-Fargo Express Company lost $11,000 was committed here Sunday. The money was in a box in the company's office in this city Sunday morning, but it disappeared during the day. Superintendent Christensen arrived here from Houston last night and is working on the case. Edward Perry, the local agent, says no trace of the box nor its contents can be found, but he thinks it may have been missent. This theory was exploded last night by telegrams from all messengers who have gone out on runs since the robbery. The express officials refused to say anything, but are working on a theory of conspiracy among the employes.

Cattle Buyer Robbed and Killed. PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 14.—John Laffin was found lying on a roadside near here this morning. Several bullets were in his body, and he expired after being carried into a house. He was a cattle buyer from Ohio, and had a large amount of money with him, which his assailants secured. The assault by the robbers was made last night. BROADSIDES of coughing, with interludes of wheezing and sneezing are heard in all public places. How strange! when everybody knows, or ought to know, that Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar is an absolute and immediate counterblast to all pulmonary complaints. For sale by Druggists.

Advice to Mothers. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It re-Coughlin and Burke heard the words | lieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, re-lieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five

> ITCHY SCALY SKIN Every night I scratched until the skin was raw. Body covered with scales like spots of mortar. An awful spectacle. Doctors useless. Cure hopeless. CURED BY CUTICURA

I am going to tell you of the extraordinary change your Cuticura Remedies performed on me. About the first of April last I noticed some red pimples like coming out all over my body, but thought nothing of it until some time later on when it began to look like spots of mortar spotted on, and which came off in layers, accompanied with itching. I would scratch every night until I was raw, then the next night the scales, being formed meanwhile, were scratched off again. In vain did I consult all the doctors in the country, but without aid. After giving up all hopes of recovery, I happened to see an advertisement in the newspaper about Cuticura Remedies, and purchased them from my druggist, and obtained almost immediate relief. I began to notice that the scaly eruptions grad-ually dropped off and disappeared one by one, and have been fully cured. I had the dis-ease thirteen months before I began taking the Cuticura Remedies, and in four or five weeks was entirely cured. My disease was eczema and psoriasis. I recommended the Cuticura Remedies to all in my vicinity, and I know of a great many who have taken them, and thank me for the knowledge of them, especially mothers who have babes with scaly eruptions on their heads and bodies. I cannot express in words the thanks to you for what the Cuticura Remedies have been to me. My body was covered with scales and I was an awful spectacle to behold.

Now my skin is as clear as a baby's.

We will pay a reward of $10 for the arrest and conviction of any persons who make a practice of stealing THE JOURNAL from the door-yards of city subscribers. Much annoyance has been experienced lately by patrons of THE JOURNAL in the city from these petty thieves, and we want to break up the gang. The word "Subscriber" is stamped on all papers regularly delivered, and that should be sufficient notice to all purchasers on the streets that papers having that word on them are stolen.
